The visualization module performs sophisticated 3D rendering of large data sets using high-quality ray-tracing algorithms. Image sequences can be generated automatically for creation of animations.

Key features:
- Perspective
- Transparency
- Lighting and shadowing
- Cut planes
- Value and/or Object color coding

Visualization examples

- High stress zones within transparent structure (FE analysis)
- Contact zones around implant